

Fines Preservation

Midwest participated in a study conducted by the United States Geological Survey that compared dust concentrations of an EnviroKleen treated section of roadway vs. an untreated section of roadway in a wildlife refuge in Hagerman, Texas.

Click here to watch the Hagerman National Wildlife Refuge Video